

Brother Tom Dau Enters Chapter Eternal

Thomas A. Dau, Beta Phi '60, who had a long and distinguished career in journalism and public relations, died April 18, 2013, in Arroyo Grande, California. He was 79.

After graduation from high school in Albuquerque, N.M., and having served his country in the U.S. Coast Guard, Tom received his undergraduate degree from the University of Arizona, where he was editor of the Arizona Wildcat.

All Honor to His Name.