

James D. Campbell '88, '93

Has been elected to membership in the

Beta Phi Hall of Honor Class of 2012

---

James D. "Jim" Campbell grew up in Phoenix and attended Brophy College Preparatory. Pledging Sigma Chi his freshman year, Jim became an active member of the Beta Phi Chapter where among many other positions he served as Philanthropy Chairman. Jim's involvement was not limited to Sigma Chi, and he was active in ASUA and a variety of organizations including Sophos and Chain Gang.

Brother Campbell attended law school at the U of A and graduated Cum Laude. He has worked at some of the premier law firms in the Southwest including O'Connor Cavanaugh, Snell and Wilmer, MacBan Law Offices, and Kinerk, Schmidt and Sethi where he is currently a trial lawyer.

Jim is a successful attorney who focused early parts of his career on representing physicians and hospitals in medical neglect cases. He currently works with Kinerk, Schmidt and Sethi representing patients.

Active in the local business community, with the Fraternity and with his children's activities, Jim has tirelessly given of his time and resources.

His volunteerism has included: President of the Beta Phi Housing Corporation (1995-2011), Member of the Sigma Chi Alumni Chapter Executive Committee, Officer of the Sigma Chi Building Company, Cub Scout Den Leader (2001-2010), an active and winning coach for basketball, baseball and soccer in many local youth leagues.

Jim is a diehard Wildcat and loyal Beta Phi.