

Stephen J. Bried '84

Has been elected to membership in the

Beta Phi Hall of Honor Class of 2014

Brother Stephen Bried graduated from Scottsdale's Saguario High School in 1980 where he was student body president, president of the freshman, sophomore and junior classes, was a member of the Key Club and was homecoming class king in his freshman, sophomore and junior years. In addition he played football and wrestled at Saguario for four years.

He pledged Sigma Chi in his freshman year and went on to become an ASUA senator, president of the ASUA Senate, president of Bobcats, Primus, Chain Gang and Sophos. He also served as a representative to the Faculty Senate. As a Beta Phi Sig, Brother Bried was pledge class president, rush chairman, Little Sister chairman and Greek underclassman of the year. He also served on the executive board of Spring Fling for two years.

After graduating in 1984 with a degree in marketing and finance, Brother Bried went to work for the Procter and Gamble Distributing Company. He was recognized as new hire manager of the year at P&G. He advanced rapidly with P&G and is now senior account executive. He has been ranked in the top 10 percent of sales people in the past 22 years in North America.

He has been active in youth sports, civic affairs and his church. He was vice president of competitive soccer for the San Ramon Soccer Club for two years and was on the Canyon Creek Little League board for two years. He also spent six years helping to raise $3.5 million for the Coyote Creek Elementary School in San Ramon, California, and was chairman of the City of Tigard, Oregon, Waste Management Committee for two years. He also helped raise $1.2 million for the Stations of the Cross at St. Timothy Episcopal Church in Danville, California.

Brother Bried and his wife, Carolyn, have three children: Christopher, 15, Will, 13, and Kate 11. They live in San Ramon, California.

"I am honored to be a Beta Phi Sigma Chi," he said. "I was blessed with brotherhood and friendships that have lasted a lifetime, and during my time as an active I learned what it meant to be a leader, to follow through, to give back to the communities we live in and to be humble. I try to live these values every day."
